

A scatter plot illustrating two overlapping elliptical regions. The left region is light blue with a darker blue outline and contains several small blue triangles. The right region is light red with a darker red outline and contains several small red circles. The two regions overlap in the center, where the blue region is slightly more prominent. The x-axis is labeled from -7 to -3.

